50X1-HUM

1. The United Front Department of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) is establishing a school for Eastern Asiatic languages to train political workers for service in various countries in Eastern Asia. This school is officially called the Eastern Asiatic Languages Short-Term Training Class (Tung Ya Yu Wen Su Ch'eng Hsueh I-tan Pan, 東亞語文速成訓練班). A total of 500 trainees will be developed 50X1-HUM

The training period will be from six to twelve months. To be selected for this training a person must have been a member of the CCP for three years or more.

2. The United Front Department of the CCP Municipal Committee for Peiping has been directed to supply twelve persons for this training.
3. There is a school for foreign language operated by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Government. The school is near the new Summer Palace near Peiping, on the same site as the People's Revolutionary University, the main and highest center of Communist indoctrination in China.

after some three years, the diplomatic corps in all the countries recognizing the Peiping regime will have a staff which is politically loyal and linguistically competent to execute the foreign policy of the Government.

4. [] about fourteen exchange students from Rumania, Hungary, and other Communist-controlled countries were studying at Tsinghua University near Peiping. Whereas the ordinary Chinese student receives an allowance of 85 catties of millet per month, these foreign students get 400 catties.

the Chinese Government has just created the International Action Department for the Liberation of Subjugated Asiatic Nations which has been placed under Liu Shao-ch'i and a Russian named Chi-Lo-Fu-Ssu-Chai (基洛夫斯基). This Department has just opened a school, so far unnamed, in the western hills near Peiping for the purpose of training people from all Asiatic countries in propaganda and subversive activities. Each course lasts six months. 50X1 1111
